

The Riverboat Postman

Friday 9th January 2026

The Hawkesbury River has been the lifeline for the farming communities since the late 1700's, with the daily needs of the population brought in by boat. The Hawkesbury Riverboat Postman is the last of its kind and still provides mail, groceries and the odd assortment of articles to the people along The River. You will spend the day enjoying the life of River trade and see the wonderful scenery that the Hawkesbury River offers.

ITINERARY

7.30am Depart King's Depot, 11 Concord Street Boolaroo (off Munibung Road, Cardiff). Boarding points are available at Charlestown, Belmont North, Belmont, Swansea, Doyalson or Ourimbah by arrangement at time of booking.

The Riverboat Postman departs from Brooklyn Wharf. See the mail, groceries, milk and odd assortment of articles taken to people who have only the river as a lifeline. Morning tea will be served upon boarding the mail boat. The ferry has a fully licensed bar and comfortable undercover seating. Enjoy a ploughman's lunch while cruising the river. Please advise of any special dietary requirements at time of booking.
