This time, he's playing to win.

John Farnham. King of Pop. Australian hero. The voice of a generation. But as a cash-strapped father, approaching middle age, in the midst of an Australian rock revolution, it could have gone a very different way.

In an outer Melbourne suburban garage in 1986, Farnham, with a new band and manager Glenn Wheatley, began work on an album and a song called You're the Voice that would transform his career and their lives. This is the story of an overnight sensation, 20 years in the making.

Starring vocal powerhouse Michael Paynter (Jesus Christ Superstar, Australian Idol) as the legend himself*, Whispering Jack: The John Farnham Musical* is a celebration, not just of hits like Pressure Down, Age of Reason, Two Strong Hearts and That's Freedom, but also of friendship, family and a great Australian artist's desire to shine a light on the world around us.
